Speaker Redmond: "The House will come to order and the Members please be in their seats. We will be lead in prayer by Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. Abraham Lincoln once said: To sin by silence, when they should protest, makes cowards of men. Let us pray. Almighty God, we thank Thee this day for the many blessings of this life, especially for our freedom to govern and live in our peaceful society; we are grateful for our heritage of pursuing courses that are of benefit and good for the people of this land. As we move onward and upward, O Lord, direct our paths to enable the adamant pursuit of justice and liberty. Provide to the Members of this Illinois Legislative Body a burning zeal to make no concessions to mediocracy or indolence that they may always champion that which is right and due; and let them never be silent when that which is consistent with Thy wisdom is disputed or challenged. This we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Bradley, for what purpose do you arise?"
